Dear The Federal Communications Commission,

i dont think that the taxes should be raised. the price of the phones are already set and the price of air time is also set. the price shouldn't change for a phone that doesn't work that great. i have had 3 phones know and on my forth one because of problems with the phone. dont add to the price for a piece of junk (thats how i feel). keep the price the same for everyone but make the company better.

Sincerely,

richanda hurt
